

JOIN US FOR THE CAMPUS RESIDENCY OF AMBER GRAY, CLASS OF '83

Bucknell alum Amber Gray is working on a community-based public mental health project to provide education and training to counselors, community and spiritual leaders in Haiti. She works with local street children, communities, and nonprofit organizations to find creative paths to healing, including dance, drumming, rituals and song. She is an award winning Dance Movement Therapist, a licensed mental health professional, a Continuum Movement teacher, and a Sevito in the Fran Ginee tradition of Vodou.

Haitian Dance Workshop

7 – 9 PM, TUESDAY, APRIL 10

Center Room 256, Langone Center

Free interactive workshop to teach traditional Haitian dances that use West African rhythms. Drummers are encouraged to bring their own drums; dancers and non dancers will have fun learning and understanding the energetic styles tied to this rich island culture.

Halos For Haiti

Art Auction and Banquet

5:30–7:30PM, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11

Langone Center, Terrace Room

Sponsored by the Black Student Union and the Student Art Assn., this event includes a silent art auction, delicious Caribbean food, entertainment, information, and a brief keynote by Amber Gray, “Unshakeable Faith: Vodou at The Crossroads,” which will explore the historical, social, and spiritual force of religion in Haiti.

Tickets are $10 for students, $15 for others, and will be available starting March 30 in the Campus Box Office, 577-1000, or online at <http://www.bucknell.edu/BoxOffice.xml>

Building Post- Conflict Communities

11:30–1:00PM, THURSDAY, APRIL 12

BUFFET LUNCH DISCUSSION

Center Room 256, Langone Center

Sponsored by the Managing for Sustainability Program, the Griot Institute for Africana Studies, and the Bucknell Institute for Public Policy, this program will include insights from Amber Gray's recent trip to Haiti where she works to alleviate post-traumatic stress and build resiliency, and a discussion of recovery efforts and the need for capacity-building. Open and free, please call 577-3973 to register.

Sponsors of this residency include the Bucknell University Alumni Board, the Association for the Arts, Office of Civic Engagement, the Bucknell Institute for Public Policy, the Griot Institute for Africana Studies, the Provost's Office, International Student Services, Multicultural Student Services, Women's and Gender Studies, Managing for Sustainability Program, French, Psychology, International Relations, Theater and Dance, Sociology and Anthropology. For information, call 577-3973.

Bucknell
UNIVERSITY

